

FRANCE CRUISES

LE PHENICIEN

18 Passengers / Provence

Constructed as a hotel barge in 2001

Measures 127 ft. long by 17 ft. wide

Nine (9) onboard cabin accommodations

Onboard climate control

Le Phenicien is a luxury floating hotel. Passengers join a small number of guests - maximum 18 - for gentle luxury barge cruises along the Rhone, from the Avignon area to Aigues-Mortes in the Camargue. The vessel navigates the river for three to four hours per day, docking at riverside towns and villages for organized excursions and free time.

PERSONNEL

Five (5) to six (6) crew members who speak both English and French (some may speak other languages, as well).

PUBLIC ROOMS

- Salon/Dining Room
- Sun Deck

ONBOARD LEISURE AND ENTERTAINMENT

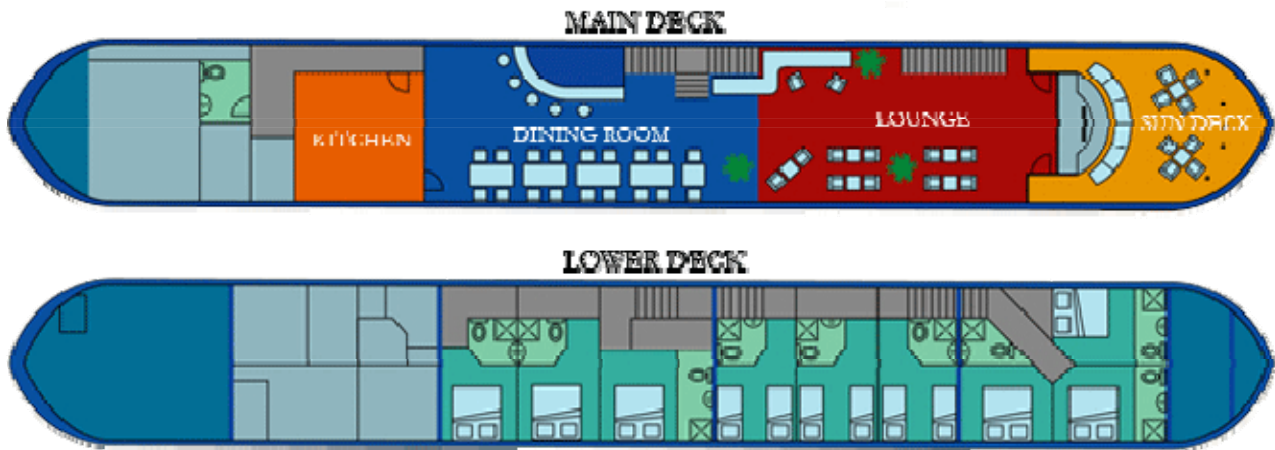

Flat screen TV • Eight (8) touring bikes: 4 men's and 4 women's • Board games • Small library of books

MOBILITY RESTRICTIONS

Le Phenicien has no wheelchair access. There are multiple narrow stairways leading from the Main Deck to the Lower Deck, and several steps leading to the cabins. Those with extremely limited mobility may have a difficult time navigating this vessel.

DECK PLAN

Le Phenicien blends the spaciousness of a larger river cruiser with the intimacy of a well-designed, well-decorated canal barge.

CABINS

There are nine (9) cabins on board Le Phénicien, all comprising most of the Lower Deck. Each cabin is furnished with colorful Provence-style fabrics and generously proportioned, each with en suite private bathroom.

CABIN SIZE

All cabins are similarly spacious in size and equally comfortable. The primary difference between each cabin is the bedding configuration.

BEDDING CONFIGURATION & SIZE

Three (3) cabins are fitted with two (2) single beds while the remaining six (6) cabins are fitted with one (1) queen bed.

BATHROOMS

All cabins have private bath facilities, complete with shower, toilet, and basin.

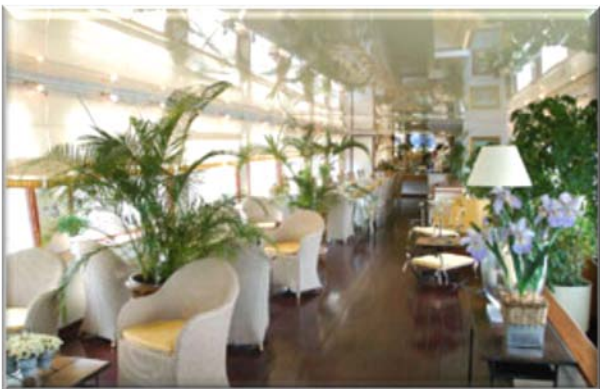

AMENITIES

Climate Control • Storage Space • Electricity (220V, French two pin plugs)

SALON/DINING ROOM

The 1000-foot Salon/Dining Room offers plenty of comfortable seating along with a dining area, all with large picture windows. While cruising, you can have a drink at the bar or take a comfortable seat on the loungers and relax with friends, play chess, read a book, listen to music, or do nothing else but enjoy the view through the large windows. The Salon/Dining Room features:

- Bar with bar stools
- Sofas
- Armchairs
- Flat screen TV

ON DECK

At the forefront of the Main Deck is a modestly-sized Sun Deck. Here, travelers can bask in the warm glow of a refreshing sunset, or revel in the tranquility of a gentle breeze. The beautiful teak deck features:

- Chairs
- Tables
- 1 parasol

OFF BOAT

Two (2) to six (6) hours a day are dedicated to cruising. One (1) or two (2) excursions a day are organized especially for you. Of course, you will also visit world-famous monuments, but such excursions are usually organized beyond the rush hours peak season. Bicycle riding is very pleasant and easy in the region; you may want to ride a bike in the evening and discover your surroundings on your own. An air-conditioned, 18-seater minibus is also available for excursions by vehicle.

ITINERARY

The 18-passenger Le Phenicien, combines the best of the Provence region -- cruising between Avignon and Aigues-Mortes - with tranquil cruising on the Rhône-Sete canal amidst the marvelous natural beauty of the Camargue region. Le Phenicien's unique route allows it to meander through the Provence and the Languedoc-Roussillon regions, with thousands of years of culture, world-renowned wines, gastronomic food, glorious weather, and in surroundings of unspoiled nature.

Itinerary Highlights:

Visiting cellars of Châteauneuf-du-Pape

Exploring charming medieval village of Les Baux de Provence

Tour of Avignon

Visiting Aigues-Mortes, a 14th century walled city rising from a flat landscape from which St Louis set sail on his Holy Crusades

Wine tasting at Costières de Nîmes cellar

FOOD & WINE

Cuisine on board Le Phenicien is French and made using the freshest ingredients the region has to offer.
